Definitions

Legal Wolf – Any male or female wolf, including young-of-the year.

Wolf Management Unit (WMU) – Areas that define Montana's wolf hunting and trapping districts as specified under "Wolf Management Unit (WMU) Legal Descriptions".

Hunter Land Access

Closed Lands – State Game Preserves, National Parks, and National Wildlife Refuges are closed to wolf hunting. For additional information on state and federal regulations, contact the local land manager.

Indian Reservations – Indian reservations are not open to wolf hunting with a State of Montana license. For questions contact the respective Tribal Government Office.

Private Land Access – Montana law requires hunters to have the permission of the landowner, lessee, or their agent before hunting on private property, regardless of whether the land is posted or not. Access courtesy cards and a map directory pamphlet are available at all FWP offices.

Public Land Access

- Wolf hunting between the ordinary high water marks of streams and rivers is illegal without landowner permission. Landowner permission must be obtained to hunt private lands adjacent to waterways.
- FWP is working cooperatively with other agencies to improve signing of legally accessible public lands wherever possible. A map directory pamphlet is available at all FWP offices.
- Enforcement of Area Closures on Public Land: All federally approved travel plans on public lands in Montana are hereby adopted by the Fish, Wildlife & Parks Commission. Motorized travel in restricted areas in violation of any current travel plan or land use plan is prohibited during the hunting season.

Railroad Access – Railroads and railroad right-of-ways are private property and may not be hunted without permission, nor should they be used as access to other lands (private or public) without explicit permission from the railroad. Consult the individual railroad for details.

State School Trust Land – A resident Conservation License allows hunters, anglers and trappers access to all legally accessible State school trust lands. However, licensed trappers are required to obtain a free Special Recreational Use License (SRUL) from the Montana Department of Natural Resources and Conservation (DNRC) prior to trapping or snaring on state school trust lands. Trapping may be restricted to those state school trust lands as approved in the SRUL. For further information on how to obtain a SRUL, contact a DNRC office. Airplane Spotting – Aircraft may not be used to locate wolves for the purpose of: 1) hunting those animals within the same hunting day after a person has been airborne; or 2) providing information to another person for the purpose of hunting those animals within the same hunting day after being airborne. The same hunting day in this context is defined as between the earliest and latest legal hunting hours.

Check Stations – All hunters are required to stop as directed at all designated check stations on their way to and from hunting and fishing areas, even if they have no game or fish to be checked.

Evidence of Sex – The following are considered lawful evidence of sex: males: testicles; females: vulva or mammarys.

Inspection of Wildlife – Wildlife taken must be shown to FWP enforcement for inspection when requested.

License Possession

- Licenses must be carried on your person at all times while in the field hunting.
- Licenses must be produced if requested by FWP Enforcement personnel.

Limits and Seasons – The bag limit is 3 wolves per license year. One wolf can be taken by means of hunting, with a valid wolf license. Wolves may also be taken by trapping, with a valid trapping license, if a person has completed mandatory wolf trapping orientation. Persons could take a combination of up to one wolf via hunting and two wolves via trapping, OR three wolves via trapping (maximum harvest of three wolves per person per license year).

Motion-Tracking or Camera Devices – It is illegal for a person to possess or use in the field any electronic or camera device whose purpose is to scout the location of game animals or relay the information on a game animal’s location or movement during any Commission-adopted hunting season.

Night Vision Equipment – It is illegal to use night vision equipment or electronically enhanced light gathering optics for locating or hunting game.

Recorded Animal Sounds – It is illegal to use any recorded or electrically amplified bird or animal calls or sounds or imitations of bird or animal calls or sounds to assist in the hunting, taking, killing or capturing of wolves.

Return to Kill Site – As a condition of hunting in Montana, persons may be required to return to the kill site if requested to do so by a FWP employee.

Information on these permits and how to acquire them may be obtained from: Office of Management Authority, USFWS, 4401 N. Fairfax Drive, Room 432, Arlington VA 22203 or telephone 1-800-358-2104 or local USFWS office or agent, or USFWS website at www.fws.gov.

Two-way Communications

- Two-way communication (radios, cell phones, text messages, etc.) may not be used to:
 - hunt wolves. “Hunt” means to “pursue, shoot, wound, kill, chase, lure, possess or capture.” OR
 - avoid game checking stations, FWP enforcement personnel, or to facilitate unlawful activity.
- The rule does not prohibit the possession or use of two-way communication for safety or other legitimate purposes.

Waste of Game – wolf is excluded from being considered as “suitable for food” under big game regulations. A person that harvests a wolf and wishes to retain possession of the hide and head must personally present the hide and skull with evidence of sex naturally attached to a designated FWP employee within ten (10) days after harvest. The remaining carcass may be taken in possession or be left in the field.

Youth Hunters – In order to carry or use a firearm for any reason, a youth under 14 years of age must be accompanied by a person having charge or custody of the child, or be under the supervision of a qualified firearms safety instructor or an adult 18 years of age or older who has been authorized by the youth’s parent or guardian, MCA 45-8-344.

Wolf Trapping Regulations

Wolf Trapper Orientation – A person must attend a wolf trapping orientation class before setting any trap for a wolf. Completion of either the Idaho or Montana wolf trapping orientation will be recognized as meeting this requirement. A certifying letter or validated license will be awarded to those completing the Montana trapping orientation session. This certification must be in possession of any person setting wolf traps and/or harvesting a wolf by trap.

Trapper License – A person must hold a valid trapper license along with proof of completion of the orientation class.

Checking and Placing Traps – Traps are required to be visually checked at least once every 48 hours. Failure to pick up traps at the end of the trapping season or attending them in a manner that wastes animals constitutes a misdemeanor per Montana law.

Trap Identification – Metal identification tags must be fastened to all traps. Metal tags must bear the name and address of the trapper OR a personal identification number, which is the trapper’s date of birth and ALS number. Tags should be attached to the end of the chain or other anchoring material at the end farthest from the portion of the device which holds the animal. Landowners who trap on their own lands and irrigation right-of-way contiguous to their land do not need to tag traps.

Trapping Equipment Requirements – Foot-hold traps are legal methods during the wolf trapping season. The inside jaw spread of foothold traps must not exceed nine inches. Conibears or snares may not be used to take wolves.

Legal Hours – Trappers will be allowed to dispatch trapped wolves during all hours including night time. A trapper must immediately dispatch any uncollared wolf captured while the trapper holds a valid license authorizing harvest of a wolf or any incidentally captured wolf that is injured.

Landowner Permission – Trappers must obtain permission of the landowner, lessee or their agent before trapping on private land.

Exposed Carcass or Bait – No trap may be set within 30 feet of an exposed carcass or bait that is visible from above. Exposed carcass or bait is defined as the meat or viscera of a mammal, bird or fish, or any part thereof more than one pound in weight. Bleached bones are excluded.

Public Land Campground – On public land, foothold traps are prohibited within 1,000 feet of a designated campground or fishing access site (FAS) that is accessible by highway vehicle.

Public Land Roads and Trails – A 150-foot setback is required for foothold traps along open roads and hiking trails on federal and state lands that are designated by administrative signs or numbers.

Public Land Trailheads – On public land, foothold traps are prohibited within 1,000 feet of a designated or marked trailhead that is accessible by highway vehicle.

Occupied Dwellings – Foothold traps are prohibited within 1,000 feet of an occupied dwelling without written notification of the occupant.

Incidental Take of Wolves Beyond the Bag Limit – Trappers may not set traps to capture wolves unless they possess a valid trapping license and have proof of a completed Montana or Idaho wolf trapper orientation. Wolf traps must be removed within 24 hours of capturing an individual trapper's last legally harvested wolf. A trapper must immediately dispatch any uncollared wolf captured that may be legally possessed. A trapper with an unfilled bag limit may release an uninjured collared wolf. If a wolf trapper incidentally catches a wolf beyond the legal limit and the wolf is uninjured, the trapper must contact FWP within 24 hours to potentially have the wolf fitted with a radio collar and released to assist FWP in management efforts. Depending upon circumstances that may include history of livestock depredations in the area and other radio collars already in place, FWP may prescribe these wolves be lethally removed. All incidentally captured wolves that are injured must be dispatched by the trapper immediately. All incidentally captured wolves that are dispatched must be reported within 24 hours to a designated FWP employee or an FWP Regional Office and the skull and pelt must be presented to FWP within 10 days. It is unlawful for any person to retain possession of an incidentally taken wolf as per Montana law.

Wolves with Radio Collars – Radio collars are used to monitor wolf activity, assess population status and help determine hunting and trapping opportunities. Though it is legal to do so, FWP encourages hunters and trappers to avoid harvesting radio-collared wolves.

Non-Target Species – Incidental captures of non-target wildlife such as protected birds or mammals, that cannot be legally possessed and that are uninjured, shall be released immediately on site and immediately reported to an FWP Regional Office. Trappers that incidentally capture protected animals that cannot be legally possessed and that cannot be released uninjured, must immediately notify a designated Fish, Wildlife & Parks employee or an FWP regional office, to determine disposition and/or collection of the animal.

Capture of Domestic Dogs – To improve the understanding of accidental dog captures in traps, trappers must report such captures, excluding a trapper's dog, to an FWP regional office within 48 hours of identifying the capture.

Disturbing Traps or Trapped Animals – It is unlawful to destroy, disturb or remove any trap or trapped wildlife belonging to a trapper without permission of the owner of the trap per Montana law.

Procedures to Follow Upon Harvesting a Wolf

- The combined maximum hunting and trapping bag limit is three wolves per person during the 2012-13 season. One wolf can be taken by means of hunting with a valid wolf license. Trapping is authorized Dec. 15, 2012 - Feb. 28, 2013 with a valid trapping license and upon completion of mandatory wolf-trapping orientation. Persons could take a combination of up to one wolf via hunting and two wolves via trapping—OR three wolves via trapping (maximum harvest of three wolves per person).
- A hunter must cut out the proper month and date of the kill from the appropriate license and attach it to the hide in a secure and visible manner immediately after killing a wolf. This is "validating" the license.

To properly validate a license, locate the appropriate month and date the animal was killed and completely cut away (notch out) the month and the date designations. Removing more than one month or one date designation invalidates the license.

- Evidence of sex must remain naturally intact on the hide.
- Upon discovering a wolf in a trap they have set, trappers are required to immediately dispatch any wolf that will not be released.
- A hunter or trapper that legally harvests a wolf and wishes to retain possession of the hide and skull, or incidentally captures a wolf that must be dispatched, is required to personally present the hide and skull to a designated FWP employee within ten (10) days after harvest for the purpose of:

- inspection and registration of kill.
- verify evidence of sex.
- tagging the hide. The hide tag must thereafter remain attached to the hide until tanned.
- Any hide or skull not presented or registered to FWP personnel within ten (10) days of harvest is subject to confiscation.
- It is unlawful for anyone to possess, ship, transport, sell or purchase any wild wolf harvested in Montana, or part thereof, unless the animal has been tagged as prescribed.
- A hunter or trapper that legally harvests a wolf and does not wish to retain possession of the hide and skull, if allowed by statute, is required to personally present the above harvest information to a designated FWP employee within ten (10) days after harvest. Retrieval of wolf parts must be consistent with relevant statute.
- Wolves are excluded from being considered as "suitable for food". A person that harvests a wolf and wishes to retain possession of the hide and head must personally present the hide and skull with evidence of sex naturally attached to a designated FWP employee within ten (10) days after harvest. The remaining carcass may be taken in possession or be left in the field as per Montana law.
- Individuals may possess, transport, sell, or purchase naturally shed antlers, or the antlers with a skull or portion of a skull attached from a game animal that has died from natural causes and that has not been illegally or accidentally killed. Because road-killed animals have not died from natural causes, the carcass or parts of protected or regulated species may not be salvaged or possessed. It is illegal to possess a bighorn sheep head/horn picked up in the wild.
- All successful wolf hunters and trappers must personally report their wolf kill within 24 hours regardless of their intent to retain possession of the hide and skull by calling the Wolf Reporting Number at 1 877-FWP-WILD (1-877-397-9453) so that FWP can monitor quota levels. Hunters and trappers are required to provide: name, telephone number, ALS number, species, date of harvest, WMU, specific location (legal description), and sex when reporting a wolf harvest. When reporting a wolf harvest, it is unlawful to subscribe to or make any statement that is materially false.
 - Successful hunters in backcountry areas will be allowed to report wolf harvests within 24 hours of reaching a trailhead except in WMU 316, a backcountry area with a quota, where successful hunters are required to report their harvest within 24 hours of taking a wolf.

Harvest Limits and Quotas

Harvest Limits – The combined maximum hunting and trapping bag limit is three wolves per person during the 2012-13 season. One wolf can be taken by means of hunting with a valid wolf license. Trapping is authorized Dec. 15, 2012 - Feb. 28, 2013 with a valid trapping license and upon completion of mandatory wolf-trapping orientation. Persons could take a combination of up to one wolf via hunting and two wolves via trapping—OR three wolves via trapping (maximum harvest of three wolves per person).

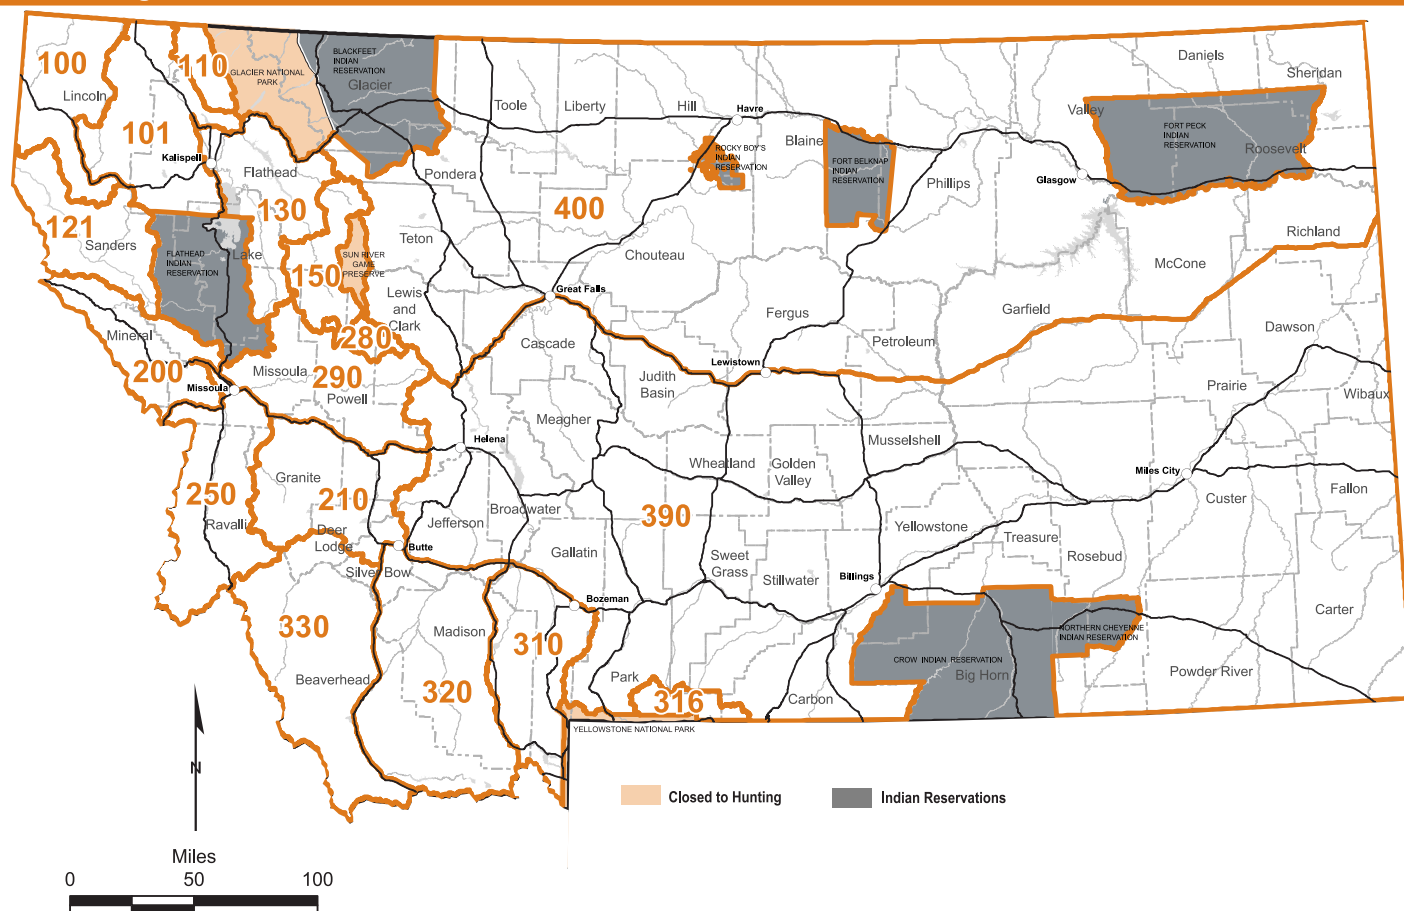

Harvest Quotas

- Harvest quotas may be established for each WMU.
- When a hunting season quota is reached in a WMU, the hunting season will close upon a 24-hour notice, but no later than February 28, 2013.
- The Fish, Wildlife & Parks Commission has authorized the department to initiate an emergency season closure at any time.

Harvest Status, Closure and Reporting Information

- Wolf harvest information may be obtained:
 - by calling 1-800-385-7826 for statewide information or,

 - The toll-free line and FWP website are updated daily by 1 p.m. MST.
- A wolf harvest must be reported within 24 hours by calling 1-877-397-9453. This number is available 24-hours a day. Successful hunters in backcountry areas will be allowed to report wolf harvests within 24 hours of reaching a trailhead except in WMU 316, a backcountry area with a quota, where successful hunters are required to report their harvest within 24 hours of taking a wolf.

Reminders for Wolf Hunters

- If you buy your wolf hunting license after the season has already opened, the license is not valid for five (5) days.
- Report your harvest within 24 hours by calling the Wolf Reporting Hotline at: 1-877-FWP-WILD (1-877-397-9453).
- You can harvest a radio-collared wolf, but the collar must be returned to FWP. Please don't cut the collar belting.
- Report wolves and wolf sign to FWP to help monitor and manage the wolf population. Information provided by hunters and other outdoor recreationists helps FWP get more accurate population counts. This benefits hunters directly by helping FWP make better decisions about wolf management. It also benefits hunters by helping FWP work more effectively with private agricultural landowners who provide open space and wildlife habitat, yet may lose livestock to wolves. If you see injured or dead livestock that you think could be due to wolves, contact FWP or the livestock owner. Report wolves and wolf sign:
 - online at: <http://fwp.mt.gov/wolf> – look for "Report a Wolf",
 - call the nearest FWP office, or
 - mail a Wolf Observation Post Card.
- Montana law allows a person to kill a wolf that is seen in the act of attacking, killing, or threatening to kill a person, seen in the act of attacking, killing, or threatening to kill livestock (cattle, sheep, llama, horses, mules or herding or guard animals), or seen in the act of attacking or killing a domestic dog not used for herding or guarding livestock. FWP must be notified within 72 hours of take or attempt to take under these circumstances.

Some Things You Should Know

Hunting Tips

- Know your target. A full sized adult wolf is about 2.5 feet tall, 5-6 feet long, and 70-120 pounds. Adult males are heavier and usually a little larger than adult females. By early fall, a young wolf is almost as tall as an adult, but weighs 10-30 pounds less and appears lanky.
- Compared to a coyote, a wolf is bulky, massive and long-legged, with a broad snout, round ears and fur ranging from gray, black or tan to white.
- Experts suggest you use a center fire rifle suitable for big game.
- Wolves may travel on roads and trails; look for tracks and scat.
- Wolves communicate with each other via howls and other sounds. If you howl at the right time, you might draw in a wolf.
- Alert deer and elk may signal a wolf nearby. Look for movement and pay attention.

Common Sense Precautions When Field-Dressing or Skinning Big Game

- To minimize risk of disease or parasite transmission to humans, follow these proper ways to handle wild meat, carcasses and hides:
- Wear rubber (latex) gloves when field dressing or skinning game.
- Minimize contact with animal fluids, brain, spinal tissues and feces.
- Wash hands and instruments thoroughly after field dressing or processing.
- Cook all meat until well done before consuming.
- To minimize risk of disease or parasite transmission to your domestic dog, prevent consumption of big game viscera.

Wolf Behavior: Tips and What to Expect

- After the shot, follow the wolf to retrieve and tag it as you would any other big game animal. Wolves aren't known to defend a wounded or harvested wolf pack member. Other wolves may howl, bark, observe, or linger briefly, but will leave the area.
- Wolves are not known to defend their own kills from humans. If you find a wolf-kill be aware of any bear sign and stay vigilant.
- Though curious, wolves rarely pose a threat to human safety. Risk factors are primarily habituation (loss of fear), food conditioning, or domestic dogs. Keep a clean camp as you would if hunting in bear country by securing all food and game meat from wolves and other scavengers. Pack out all garbage so the area will be safe for you and other recreationists in the future.

Wolf Parasites

Mange

- Some wolves have mange – a skin parasite that results in the loss of fur on the wolf. In mild cases, the wolf can lose hair on its tail, lower belly, or the lower parts of its legs. In severe cases, a wolf can lose hair across a large part of its body. Hunters can visually scan a wolf to see if it shows signs of hair loss. If it does, you may choose to not take the animal, as its fur will likely not be in prime condition for tanning. If you shoot a wolf that does show signs of mange, tag the animal and report the kill to FWP. You may be issued another wolf license.

Tape Worm

- Wolves commonly carry tapeworm in their intestinal tract called Echinococcus granulosus. There is some risk of humans becoming infected with this parasite.
- Hunters should wear gloves when field dressing a wolf, coyote, or fox carcass, and wash hands and forearms thoroughly, since they may have come into contact with contaminated feces or fur. When skinning any animal, use common sense precautions: wear rubber (latex) gloves, minimize contact with animal fluids, brain and spinal tissues, and wash hands and instruments thoroughly after field dressing. Carry and use hand sanitizer.
- Several basic precautions will minimize the risk of human infection with Echinococcus. Dog owners should not allow dogs to consume carcasses of wild or domestic ungulates. If your dog does have access to carcasses, talk to your veterinarian about an appropriate deworming strategy. Always wash your hands after handling a dog that has access to ungulate carcasses. When enjoying outdoor recreation, do not touch or disturb wolf, coyote, or fox scat.
- The general public is unlikely to be infected with Echinococcus. To become infected with Echinococcus, a human must ingest parasite eggs, which are passed with the feces of an infected wolf, coyote, fox or domestic dog. Eggs could be ingested while consuming vegetation or drinking water that has been contaminated with infected feces. Humans may also become infected after handling contaminated canine scat or fur, and then transferring eggs to the mouth by touching the face or eating before adequate handwashing. Echinococcus infection in humans can lead to development of cysts in organs such as the lungs, liver, or brain, just as it does with other intermediate hosts. Cysts may develop over prolonged periods of time (10-15 years) before any clinical signs are evident. Treatment may involve surgical removal of cysts and treatment with anthelmintic medications. Contact the Montana Department of Health and Human Services for more information.
